

Captain's Charity Day

I believe Saturday's Charity Day was a great success. I have received many positive comments regarding how much people enjoyed the competition.

In total you helped raise €1,226.21.

This comprised of :

Competition entry fees	€224
Mulligans/bunker/target golf	€302.21
Raffle ticket sales	€485
Gwen Jones's cards	€78
Guess the number of corks	€41
Book sale	€48
Bonus ball	€48

Competition Winners

Winner - Gill Cackett – 41 points

Runner up – Anita Aldridge – 39 points

3rd place – Neil Hodgson – 38 points (ACPO)

4th place – Bill Martin 38 points (ACPO)

There were a handful of players with 38 points. The unlucky members who lost on count back were:

Anne Lise Stang, Sue Storer, Evert Lindholm, and Steve Powis.

Target Golf

There were just 2 winners for the target golf, Roger Birkett and Steve Powis.

Player most likely to improve prize

Terry Spiby may have wished that he had stayed in bed, but he had the last laugh by walking off with a prize voucher for a free golf lesson. I'd like to thank you Terry for accepting this prize in good spirit.

Raffle Prizes

There are several unclaimed raffle prizes. These are available for collection at the Club. Please contact either myself or Neil to arrange.

I am attaching a full checklist of the winning ticket numbers and respective prizes. The unclaimed prizes are highlighted in colour.

Bonus Ball

We have checked the UK's National Lottery website and can announce that the bonus ball number relating to Saturday night's draw is number 10.

The lucky winner is Olav Stang.

Guess the number of corks

There were 141 corks in the jar. We had 2 winners who guessed 140 and 142.

They were Neil Hodgson and Colin Clark. Neil kindly donated his winnings to the Charity.

Thank you

Can I just say, once again, thank you to Sue Colquhoun for helping me with the target golf competition, Neil for videoing the action, Sue l'Anson for selling the raffle tickets, bonus ball and the corks quiz, Gwen for selling her hand made cards, Sharon for helping with the book sale and, of course, Bev for checking the scorecards and her wonderful cooking (Nobody left me any pie!!). Also can I thank all the members (and others) who kindly donated prizes for the raffle.

Of course, a massive thank you to you, the members, for generously supporting the event.

Finally, I would like to thank Graham Brown (Chairman of Cyprus Kidney Association (Paphos)) and his wife Heather for coming to the Club and helping me with the presentation.

I don't think there was a dry eye in the Sports Bar when Graham tried to enlighten members about his quest to raise money for the Kidney Patient sufferers of Paphos. He became totally overwhelmed by the occasion and I know he was disappointed not to have been able to finish his address. I have asked him to put in writing a brief summary of his intended message, and I shall forward this to you as soon as I receive it.

Thanks again.

Steve
